PRESIDENT'S REPORT

MAY, 1969

When I was installed as President of Sisterhood two years ago, one of the points in my acceptance speech was "what do I hope to accomplish for Sisterhood?" and I presented my hope that we keep faith with our past but not compete with it, that we fulfill our obligations - not to the exclusion of all else - but with feeling hearts, knowing full well what Sisterhood stands for will be remembered by our words as well as our deeds. I hope all of you will feel that we followed in this direction, and if this challenge has been met in any way, it is due to the whole-hearted cooperation I have received from the entire Sisterhood -- the Past Presidents, the Officers, the Board and the membership.

Serving as Sisterhood President has been my honor and one of the most rewarding experiences in my life. I am deeply appreciative of your confidence in me and my fellow Officers - your helping hands - your advice and your encouragement. Together we have more than exceeded our monetary goals, but what is more important, I hope we have worked with feeling hearts - keeping faith with our past and building toward even a more productive future.

The following pages will include reports from each of the four Vice-Presidents on her own department, the Budget, the Treasurer's annual report, and the report of the Hilda Goodman Judaica Shop. We hope you will find these reports informative and helpful as guidelines for the future.

I know our Vice-Presidents will thank the many committee chairmen and workers who served so faithfully, but I, too, must extend my deepest appreciation to each one.

And to our Temple Family - - Dr. Nussbaum, Cantor Silverman, Sam Bucholtz, Thelma Cohen, Mildred Friedman, Carrie Blum, Bess Pell, Sadye Goldman, Lillian Klass, Ralph Levin, and last but far from least, Mr. Wainschel - - my gratitude for all they have done.

I must repeat Sisterhood's and my thanks to Sam Bucholtz for his many years of being a devoted friend to us and include our every good wish for his and Rena's health and happiness in the future.

Sisterhood owes a warm and grateful thank you to Hilda Goodman and her group of dedicated helpers who operate the Hilda Goodman Judaica Shop, and to Cecile Gibstein, our tireless and devoted Tribute Fund Chairman. These ladies work long hours, the year round, and it is efforts such as theirs that enable our Sisterhood to meet its goals.

And finally a word to our Past Presidents. I had said that I would never undertake the office of President of our Sisterhood without the Past Presidents by my side. Their good counsel and help were of the utmost value. The highest compliment I could pay them is to hope to emulate their actions, and as I join their ranks as a Past President, I hope I will serve future Presidents with their same dedication.

May we go from strength to strength.

Respectfully submitted,
Miriam Salzman, President

I should also like to make special mention of a few events.

Our Membership Luncheon was a "welcome home" to Dr. Nussbaum and Ruth. We knew we missed them - but didn't realize how much until we had them back again, with their warmth and understanding and guidance.

Attending the 29th Biennial Assembly of NFTS, District #24, The Western Federation of Temple Sisterhoods in Phoenix in October was an enjoyable opportunity and I was proud to represent a Sisterhood such as ours.

Due to the efforts of Rose Beal, Sisterhood undertook the project of repairing and resilvering the Candelabra used at the Oneg Shabbats, the large Punch Bowl, and the Kiddish Cup used on the pulpit for Friday night services. They are once again restored to their original beauty - - thanks to Rose.

A new innovation was tried this year with respect to the Model Seders which Sisterhood prepares for the entire Religious School. Instead of serving just the ceremonial foods which was the custom, we served a complete lunch to all the children and teachers. This change was very well received.

Our publicity in the local and Jewish press was excellent throughout the year and we wish to thank Bette Rivkin for her untiring efforts.

We had four money-raising events during the year - the Book Review Series, which was very well received; the "Day at the Races" - profitable and fun, too; the Bon Voyage Party, a joint venture with Brotherhood, which was successful money-wise and engendered good-will beyond a dollars and cents value; and finally - "THE RUMMAGE SALE" - again a joint venture with Brotherhood - profitable beyond our fondest dreams - and created a spirit of togetherness between the two auxiliaries that should serve as a model for future activities.

I purposely did not mention names connected with the above events for fear of omitting one name; but to all who contributed to the success of these ventures - our grateful appreciation. I must add that a special expression of thanks must be paid the Temple membership for its support of the Rummage Sale.

I would be remiss if I did not mention the whole hearted cooperation and dedicated service of the Officers elected to serve with me during the past year. Each one took her office seriously in contributing her time and efforts toward the success of all our undertakings.

ADVANCEMENT OF JUDAISM

Once more our year is drawing to a close. It is with mixed feelings that I have relinquished my post to a very able successor.

The two years accorded me a great deal of experience, especially to work with the board, the president and many members alike. It is very much appreciated and I shall always look back upon the time spent as a great adventure with many pleasant memories of the friendship and dedication of our wonderful workers.

The generous amount of time and energy, their willingness to make our beautiful Friday night Oneg Shabbats so appealing in warmth and friendliness. We feel it is an incentive to have the members remain with their guests and partake of refreshments so beautifully served and eye appealing.

Our lovely ladies serving in the atmosphere of our pleasant Miller Hall makes it a must to be present each Friday evening as it is an inspiration as well as a courtesy to our beloved Rabbi. The interest and enthusiasm makes our Sabbath Services difficult to resist.

Our good and welfare brings us much closer to our Temple family, as we all share the joys and sorrows showing we care for each other.

I sincerely thank Jessie Fabish from the bottom of my heart for her part in helping to make the Oneg Shabbats so successful. Also Mrs. Mary Moss, Cecile Gibstein, Mrs. Joseph Grifkin, Mrs. Flora Jonas, Mrs. Sarah Rice and Mrs. Sydell Leebove.

My sincere thanks to our Chaplain, Mrs. Morris Korach; H.U.C. Luncheon, Mrs. Richard Jiedel, Chairman, and Mrs. Morris Korach; H.U.C. Jewish I.R. - Mrs. Walter Beal, Mrs. Morris Korach, Mrs. Charles Meyer; Liason to Comm. on Israel, Mrs. Morris Korach; Observer Columnist, Mrs Murray Shapiro; Oneg Shabbat, Mrs. Jessie Fabis, Chairman, Mrs. Jacob Gibstein, Mrs. Flora Jonas and Mrs. Leo Moss; Publicity, Mrs. Norman Rivkin; Sunshine, Mrs. Leo Oblath and Mrs. Saul Silverman; Uniongrams, Mrs. Roy Rose, Chairman, and Mrs. Harold Goldstein.

Writing Uniongrams, Mrs. Leo Barth, Mrs. Earl Schuman, Mrs. Saul Reiss and Miss Constance Wolf; World Union for Progressive Judaism, Mrs. Max Nussbaum; Public Relations, Mrs. Marshall Gumbiner, Chairman, Mrs. Selma Baar, Mrs. Louis Eglash, Mrs. Morris Gale, Mrs. A. Galston, Mrs. Cecile Goldberg, Mrs. Joseph Grifkin, Mrs. Oscar Harrison, Mrs. Noah Lewin, Mrs. Leo Oblath, Mrs. Irving Rice, Mrs. David Richman, and Mrs. Morris Rothman, Mrs. C. D. Royal, Mrs. Murray Shapiro, Mrs. M. J. Siegel and Mrs. Jacob Stacel.

A sincere thanks to my wonderful writers of Uniongrams for their unselfish time and dedication. I thank each and everyone of them. My heartfelt thanks to our President Miriam, who was our guiding spirit. I shall miss working with you. I hope this coming year will be just as fruitful and soul rewarding.

Sincerely yours,

Ida Michaels,
Vice President in Charge

DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RELATIONS

As I look back over the past year, I feel that we have been quite successful in bringing a very diversified program to our group. This of course can not be done alone. My heartfelt thanks go to all those who served as chairmen and committee members. The following are those I have referred to:

Bonds for Israel - Suzanne Meyer
Decorating - Liane Donnell, Pauline Elkins, Diane Radin,
Elaine Sherman and Ruth Karpel
Hospitality - Gladys Fleischer
Interfaith - Ruth Nussbaum and Mollie Silverman
March of Dimes - Clarice Stern
Luncheons - Jessie Fabish, Helen Barth, Rose Beal, Esther
Grifkin, Joyce Guyer, Ruth Jiedel, Lillian
Korach, Fay Mintz, Gita Moskowitz, Elaine
Sherman, Rita Feder, Kathy Shostak, Esther
Zarky, Tobey Moss, Shirley Shapiro, Ruth
Karpel, and Frances Siegel
Serving - Ruth Levin
Program - Margit Knispel
Service for the Sightless - Tobey Moss
Transportation - Doris Becker
United Crusade - Mildred Potovsky
United Jewish Welfare - Paula Lerner
U.S.O. - Flora Jonas

It has been a pleasure working with all of you and hope to continue to do so next year. Briefly the following is a summary of each program that we presented over the year.

September 17, 1968 - The annual Membership Luncheon welcoming Rabbi and Mrs. Nussbaum back from a 9 month sabbatical. The guest speaker was Mrs. Nussbaum presenting an excellent view of Israel and the World. It was fascinating to listen to her experiences on their trip around the world. The Luncheon buffet was excellent under the chairmanship of Jessie Fabish. It was a cold turkey and salad spread and I highly recommend it for such a large crowd as we draw for a Membership affair.

October 8, 1968 - We presented a Dessert Tea and Goodwill Industries Fashion Show entitled "The Flapper Era". Our own women were the models for a very nostalgic program bringing back the fashions of the Twenties. The Tea was presented beautifully under the able hand of Rita Feder.

November 12, 1968 - Our Chairman of the Day was Margit Knispel. As always, Margit brought us a most delightful program of music. The guest artist was Alex "Shony" Braun. His beautiful violin music proved to make the afternoon one of great relaxation besides enjoyment. The beautiful lunch was chaired by Gita Moskowitz and Elaine Sherman. Their special recipe of chicken and chinese noodle casserole was excellent.

December 3, 1968 - Miriam Curtis did an excellent job in the roll as Chairman of the Day for our very festive Hanukkah Luncheon Meeting. Our Cavalcade of Hanukkah Decorations was a tremendous success. It proved what an artistic group of women we have. Each center piece was more original than the next. Our luncheon was chaired by Tobey Moss. Adding to the festive occasion was the beautiful voices of the "Musart Singers". We delighted in the first public presentation of "Prayer for America". This program was a wonderful introduction to the happy Hanukkah season.

January 21, 1969 - This meeting was our annual joing meeting with the Brotherhood and was co-chaired by Suzanne Meyer and Sidney Schneir. It was a most informative evening featuring Dr. Perry E. Nussbaum, Rabbi of Beth Israel Congregation of Jackson, Miss. He was most interesting in an informal talk on his life as a Rabbi in the South. Refreshments were served following his program and it was most interesting to speak to the Rabbi about his experiences.

February 4, 1969 - A Salute to Brotherhood Week was our theme for this monthly meeting. We were pleased to be able to obtain Councilman Thomas Bradley as our speaker to celebrate Brotherhood week. Ruth Nussbaum was our Chairman of the Day and Rita Feder prepared a magnificent lunch.

March 4, 1969 - The particular program for this month proved to be timely in this age of unrest among the youth. We were so fortunate to have on our panel program Claire Wolpe and Helen Gruenberg, members of our own Temple and Sisterhood, to present an approach to the Youth Rebellion that was quite enlightening. The title in itself gives one an excellent idea what was said - "Give up - Give in - or Give out". A lovely luncheon was prepared under the Chairmanship of Esther Grifkin.

April 15, 1969 - This is the month that we celebrated both Rabbi and Cantor's birthdays. Our luncheon fell in the middle of both occasions and it is always a delight to celebrate this happy time. Rena Waxman once again performed for us in a most unusual program, the reading of "Mrs. Beneker". As always, this was a highly successful affair, not only due to the program, but to the lovely, delectable luncheon prepared by Gita Moskowitz and Elaine Sherman. Rose Beal was our Chairman of the Day and as always, chose an excellent program.

Sisterhood Annual Report 1969

Dept. of Human Relations

May 10, 1969 - This is our big program of the year - CELEBRATION of MOTHERS DAY. Margit Knispel and Adina Stein with the very able assistance of Shirley Shapiro, prepared a beautiful lunch for over 300 people. The menu of Cornish Game Hens was a Gourmet Delight. The program for the day - "The Old and The New" featured a Swimwear Fashion Show by Catalina Swimwear - it was beautifully put together by the Chairman of the Day, Renee Cronenwalt. An outstanding feature was the "Thoughts on Mothers Day" given by Miriam Curtis, representing the grandmother, Gita Moskowitz, representing the mother, Lois Cornfeld, the daughter's view, and Barry Gumbiner, a son's view. This affair in May is always a perfect climax to our year of programming.

In conclusion, I would just like to thank everyone once again for their guidance, participation and assistance. If I have forgotten anyone, it is only because the co-operation was so great that I can only say this was a success due to the help of the whole Group.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Jack Gumbiner,
Vice-President in Charge

DEPARTMENT OF MEMBERSHIP AND ADMINISTRATION

It has been a distinct privilege and a pleasure to work for Sisterhood in this capacity. We not only met our budget, but exceeded it beyond our expectations. My special thanks to Mrs. Herman Sperling for her excellent handling of the budget. Our Calendar and Roster Book was efficiently handled by Mrs. Henry Salzman, Mrs. Martin Goodman and Mrs. Ben Porter. Circles progressed at their usual pace, and a big thank you to all circle participants.

Mrs. Daniel Harrison faithfully fulfilled her job as Membership Chairman by sending welcoming letters to all new women who became Temple members this past year. Sisterhood graciously offers a complimentary membership to these women for one year.

Thank you, Mrs. Jack Fier, for your efficient work as our Retention Chairman. You were a tremendous help in retaining our membership.

A special report from Mrs. Hilda Goodman is included in the annual report. Thank you, Hilda, and thanks to your devoted committee for a job well done. My job as Ways and Means Chairman would have suffered great difficulty if it were not for you, and your untiring efforts toward our Gift Shop.

Another important means of fund raising is achieved by your generous contributions to our Tribute Fund. Mrs. Cecile Gibstein, our Tribute Chairman, is to be thanked for all the work that goes into executing her job. This year to date, the contributions amount to $2,000.00. Thank you, Ceil, for your beautiful notes and prompt service in sending out the messages. We, in Sisterhood, are so grateful.

Our 1968-69 year started with a joint Ways and Means venture with the Brotherhood. We sold raffle tickets with the winner receiving a round trip to Europe for two persons, plus $750.00 expense money. In return for selling a book, one person could attend a lovely Bon Voyage Dinner Dance party in our beautifully decorated Miller Hall. Over 300 people attended this social function, and of course, it was a great financial success. Our special thanks go to our Decorating Chairman Mrs. Rea Miller, and her talented committee of women who helped make this event so successful. Thank you, ladies, for a fantastic job.

Our next project was an exciting Book Review Series graciously chaired by Mrs. Mildred Gelber and Mrs. Sam Bucholtz. Our own Rabbi Max Nussbaum led off the Series with an outstanding review. Thank you, Rabbi, for your participation. Mr. David Westheimer presented "Personal Anecdotes" for one meeting of our series. It is always a thrill to hear a report from an author. Mrs. Evelyn Kahn and Mrs. Beulah Sosson presented two reviews, and they both did an excellent job. Thank you, ladies, we are indeed fortunate to have two such talented women in our Sisterhood. The series proved to be a financial success.

In March, along with the Brotherhood, we held our Rummage Sale. This event was chaired by Mrs. Charles Meyer, of Sisterhood, and Mr. Henry Salzman and Mr. Ben Porter of the Brotherhood. These ardent workers worked for months collecting merchandise and delivering it to the store which we had rented. Without the help of these three wonderful people, there would not have been any rummage sale at all. This sale proved to be one of our greatest means of revenue. I would also like to thank the many workers of Sisterhood and Brotherhood who worked so diligently on this project.

Our next event, besides being a fun project, netted us a nice revenue. Mrs. Marge Goodman was chairman of "A Day at the Races", and many thanks to both Marge and Bertha Carlo for a job well done. To the committee who helped sell the tickets and make the arrangements, a very well deserved thank you.

Last, but by no means least, we are looking forward to our Donor's Luncheon on May 27th, at the Sportsmen's Lodge. This luncheon will be Sisterhood's reward to its wonderful group of workers. Mrs. Walter Beal will be our chairman of the day, and Mrs. Walter Knispel, Program Chairman. The day promises to be an outstanding one, as only these two ladies can make it.

My thanks to Mollie Eisenberg, who worked so tirelessly through out the year keeping the Donor Records.

My gratitude to Mrs. Lillian Epstein, my co-chairman, and to my Sisterhood President, Mrs. Miriam Salzman, for all the help and guidance which they have given me through out the year.

Let me conclude with a great big thanks to Mr. Charles Meyer, President of the Brotherhood, and to my devoted husband, Charlie, the Brotherhood Ways and Means Chairman. Their willingness to have the Brotherhood and Sisterhood participate jointly in two two large fund raising affairs helped to make two events the tremendous successes that they were.

Again my heartfelt thanks to all of you wonderful people who have co-operated, assisted and guided the Sisterhood in achieving this year's goal.

Affectionally yours,

Mrs. Charles Forsch
Vice President in Charge

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGION AND EDUCATION

Filling a "spot" on the Executive Board headed by President Miriam Salzman has been a most satisfying feeling. I am privileged to have been on this Team.

This year's Department of Religion and Education was fortunate to have the talents and interest of a pair of lovely young mothers in our school - Mrs. Seymour Marias (Seidel) and Mrs. Irving Lebow (Marilyn). As Saturday and Sunday Chairmen of the Religious School, they organized and directed about thirty dedicated room mothers for each day's programs, as they were planned. I'm sure that they have derived deep satisfaction from the successful programs carried out by the Sisterhood in the School - - and I'm also sure that their children were as pleased as they with their participation in the activities.

We started out in September on the 14th and 15th with the opening session of the Religious School, when our committee served coffee and cake in the Brody Board room and "name tagged" all of our newly joined parents. It was a pleasure to meet parents with interest in their children's Jewish education. At this meeting we also delineated the functions and activities of our particular Department of the Sisterhood.

On October 6th - Sunday morning at 10:00 a.m. - we gathered (about 30 strong) to trim the Succah. This "Task" proved to be a lot of fun! We had the long arms of five men available to us - they took care of the ceiling of the Succah, while we women handled the threading of all the fruits and vegetables, besides filling in of the walls of the Succah. Our own Mrs. Jacob Stacel (Minnie) even came in from the Valley that morning so that she wouldn't miss the "fun!"

That night of October 6th at 5:00 p.m., the Consecration of new students in the Kindergarten thru the 4th Grades was held in the Main Sanctuary. The stage had been laden that morning with the traditional bounty of fruits and vegetables from field and tree in honor of Succot, and looked lovely. The children were given miniature Torahs. Kiddush was held in the newly decorated Succah. It was a beautiful and meaningful service.

Special credit is given, of course, to Mrs. Barney Berman (Sadie) as Chairman of Jewish Ceremonials and Arts. She, with Mrs. Walter Beal (Rose), Mrs. Robert Feder (Rita), and Mrs. Bernard Bergman (Shelly) were the principal directing forces of this activity.

On Sunday night, October 13th, the Sisterhood presented flags and apples to all children attending the Simchat Torah Services. Kiddush after Service was held in the Succah and an Oneg was served in Miller Hall.

Dept. of Religion and Education

November 22nd, the Sabbath before Thanksgiving, we held a 4th Grade Class Family Dinner in Miller Hall with a Family Service following the dinner in the Sanctuary. It was very well supported. I feel that this function of Sisterhood, begun the term before I took office, is one of the most valuable to have been initiated in recent years.

Hanukkah was celebrated in the Religious School on Saturday and Sunday, December 14th and 15th. Our Room Mothers came forth enthusiastically to serve homemade cookies and punch to all classes and to present a box of Hanukkah candles to the youngest child of every family in our Religious School.

On the weekend of March 1st and 2nd, Purim was celebrated in the Religious School by the reading of the Megillah in the Sanctuary. Before the children filed in to the Service, our Room Mothers handed out gregors to all classes of Kindergarten thru 3rd grades. This year, instead of giving the children Hamentashen in the classrooms, as was our custom, Sisterhood was asked to help our Temple Youth Group achieve success in their Purim Carnival. Therefore, we handed out tickets to all children in School - tickets that were redeemable for two free Hamentashen at the Carnival! We manned a "Sisterhood Booth" for the distribution of these free Hamentashen and sold extras for 5¢. We also manned the booths selling scrip for all events at the Carnival and also sold plastic refrigerator containers. It was a great deal of fun, the TY's made a nice bit of money for their charitable aims and we hope that we can "help" them again in the future.

Preparation for the Model Seder to celebrate Pesach in the Religious School began about March 24th with the ordering, purchasing and mobilization of women power to implement the preparation and serving of our 600 children on Saturday and Sunday, March 29th and 30th in Miller Hall. With admittedly ambitious goals, we served the children the traditional ceremonial foods of matzo, hard-cooked eggs, parsley, parsnip, charoseth, grape juice and macaroons; however, in addition, we served them a gefilte fishlet and piece of roasted chicken to complete the meal. We were most grateful for the warm response to this lovely meal. We hope to continue this practice.

This Department of Sisterhood also shared in the support of Adult Education classes, Friday Night and Yom Tov Candle Lightings, Religious School transportation, as well as Youth Activities.

In all of these positions, activities, programs, it must be realized that large numbers of willing, helpful hands were necessary and available. I, personally, feel very "full" and warm when I recall the response from Seidel Marias, Marilyn Lebow, all of the members of our Department, room mothers and unnamed mothers and friends who came forth to share in the achievement of this wonderful year. They all know that in life WE GET WHAT WE GIVE!

To all I offer my sincere thanks.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Allen S. Moss

TEMPLE ISRAEL SISTERHOOD GIFT SHOP

It is time again to make our annual report, sorry to say it is not as good as in previous years. It is very discouraging and disheartening as with the same amount of work done, we could have made much more money with a little more support from the membership. This year we took in $1,300.00 less in gross sales, also we thought that if we took a lower mark up, we would sell more goods, but it didn't work out that way. Last year our gross profit was 31% while this year it was only 22%. Then we had a little more expense this year, a wagon was purchased while I was away, which was very expensive and too large for the shop.

More and more of our customers have joined book clubs, which is very commendable and I don't blame them, but it has resulted in less book sales at the shop. Also our stationery and invitation business has declined, probably we haven't had as many brides in the organization.

We certainly appreciate the business of many loyal customers and thank them for it. Thanks are also due to our wonderful helpers, such as Rose Spencer, Sarah Rice and Flora Jonas, who come regularly without being reminded, sometimes as often as three days each week and can be depended upon at all times.

We have certainly missed Minnie Brown who unfortunately has been ill for a couple of months, and hope that next year she will be able to take part in the shop again.

We are now taking orders for personalized New Year cards and we would urge you to look at them and order too, instead of waiting till the last minute.

We now hand you a check for $2,500.00, leaving us $1,700.00 for our working capital in the shop.

Respectfully submitted,

Hilda Goodman
